One of the surprises is the addition of silent film star Mae Marsh, who recently appeared in "The Robe." She was Samuel Goldwyn's first star in 1917-18, and appeared in such films as "Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance."

Miss Marsh lives in Hermosa Beach now and devotes most of her time to her three children and six grandchildren. Her spare time is taken up with oil painting and gardening.

FORMER SWIM CHAMPION

Brad Marro, who has appeared on the Larry Finley show and the Manhattan Beach Fun Fair, is another addition. Marro spent three years in the Navy, was a former swimming champion, and is a graduate of the University of Omaha.

Fifty members of the South Bay Symphony Orchestra will perform both popular and classical music for the show. They have played at the "May Festival" for the past 10 years and also the "Christmas Masque."

Elyse Aehle, conductor, 1617 Via Montemar, Palos Verdes, has appeared as a concert violinist in France, Germany, and Czechoslovakia. She has done radio shows in Paris, Chicago, and St. Louis, and had a program called "Phantom Violin." Miss Aehle was chosen the most outstanding woman musician of the year at the Missouri Women's Exposition, and was the second American woman to receive a scholarship to the Paris Conservatory of Music. She also toured with the Spanish Symphony Orchestra as conductor. She was organizer of the "May Festival," and is president of the Pacific Bowl Association.

BALLET RUSSE

Carol McDougal, who will be an accompanist for the show, has a background of touring with the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, and played in a dual piano team for three radio networks. She is currently working at Paramount Studios. Her husband, Don, will appear on the show as a vocalist.

"The Harvest Revue" will include something to please everyone in the audience, from popular and classical music to modern and dramatic dancing, to skits and comedy bits.

All proceeds from the benefit will go to the many charities maintained and supported by B'nai B'rith, such as non sectarian hospitals and orphan homes in the United States and Israel.

Party Cherry Pie Made With Cream Cheese Layer

This is the favorite party dessert recipe of Mrs. A. B. McTee, 810 Madrid. We tasted it, and it's delicious. Mrs. McTee is president of the Lioness Club.

- 1 can sour-pitted cherries 1/4 tsp. red food coloring
- 3/4 cup sugar 1 tsp. milk or cream
- 3 tbsps. cornstarch 1 pkg. cream cheese
- 1/2 tsp. salt 1 9-inch pie shell, baked
- 1/2 tsp. vanilla 1 cup whipping cream
- 1 tsp. lemon juice

Drain juice from cherries, measure 1 cup liquid. If there is not enough cherry juice, add water to make up the cup. In a saucepan mix sugar, cornstarch and salt. Add cherry juice, bring mixture to boil, stirring constantly. Boil 3 minutes. Add lemon juice, vanilla, food coloring and cherries. Cool filling. Soften cream cheese with milk or cream. Spread over bottom of cooled pastry shell. Pour in filling, chill in refrigerator. Just before serving, top with a generous amount of flavored whipped cream. This recipe will serve six to eight persons.

A FESTIVE PARTY...cherry pie that has little extra something is the favorite recipe of Mrs. A. B. McTee, 810 Madrid. In this case the extra something is a bottom layer of cream cheese. Almost everybody likes cherry pie, so try this new version of an old favorite.
